Articles of Association.
In accordance with the provisions of the Revised Statutes of the State of Maine, chapter 48, sections 18, 19 and 20, and chapter 65 of the public laws of said State of the year 1876, and Statutes amendatory thereof and additional thereto, we, the undersigned, whose residences are stated opposite our respective signatures, hereby associate ourselves together by these written Articles of Agreement, for the purpose of organizing a corporation for the following purposes, to wit:
First. Purchasing, owning, controlling and using the following property, viz: The shore-front, wharf property and mill site in Brewer, in Penobscot County, State of Maine; the engine, boilers, certain of the shafting and machinery that were in the mills upon said site recently burned, the same being owned by James H. Smith, James F. Woodbury and Charles E. Newcomb. Also any other real and personal property that may be deemed necessary, useful or convenient for the business of the corporation.
Second. Building mills upon said real estate, putting power and machinery into the same for planing lumber, working and manufacturing wood and other things, and using, operating and leasing said mills, power and machinery.
Third. With power and right not only to use and lease, but to mortgage, sell and convey any or all their property and property rights, and to do whatever things may be necessary, useful or convenient in the business aforesaid:
Which corporation shall be located at Brewer aforesaid and shall have its office at said Brewer.
Fourth. The first meeting shall be held in accordance with section 18 of said chapter 48, Revised statutes, at the office of Jasper Hutchings, Room No. 3 Larrabee's Block, West Market Square, in Bangor, in said County, on the 25th day of September, A. D. 1882, at ten o'clock A. M.

THE HUB
OVAL PARLOR STOVE.
The Latest in the Field.
Has in one season proved itself the BEST STOVE IN THE WORLD,
and established for itself a reputation far better than other stoves that have been used in the city for years.
Its Popularity
is due to genuine improvements, which are entirely different from the leading features of other stoves, and are secured to the manufacturers by letters patent, which effectually prevents their being copied.
The Double-Walled Ash Pit, with circulating air flues, increases the heating capacity 25 per cent. and makes the small sizes equal to the large sizes of other makes.
THE PATENT DUAL GRATE
clears the fire of all dust, clinkers, ashes, &c., without using a poker or opening a door, insuring cleanliness, and reducing the labor of running the stove to a very fine point.
THE NAME HUB
is sufficient guarantee of the quality of the goods and insures perfect work in every respect.
This Stove is Up to the Times, and all other manufacturers realize and admit that they cannot equal this King of Heaters.

KOHLER

Patent Wrought Iron Double Radiating Surface Hot Air Furnace for Coal,
WITH 1882 ANTI-CLINKER GRATE.
This is the most PERFECT Furnace in its construction and operation ever made. It has ANTI-CLINKER GRATE for removing clinkers and refuse. The ASH FLUE carries all flying ashes into the Fire Pot. It has WROUGHT IRON DOUBLE RADIATOR which will last twenty years, and by it heat can be carried to a greater distance than by any other furnace. Entire freedom from gas, smoke or dust. We warrant it to last longer, and give MORE heat with the same amount of fuel than any other furnace made.
We also manufacture the ETNA Cast Iron Furnaces, which are superior to other makes. We invite the most critical examination of their merits, and can furnish references and testimonials without number.
Manufactured and for sale by German Classes.

The regular course of instruction of the German classes under the tutorship of Prof. Carl Braun, will commence September the 19th, in the same thorough manner of previous terms, with the only aim of teaching with success, that is to say: not only to teach the scholar how to pronounce a few conversational phrases, but enable him to speak correctly with ease and fluency and read and write likewise, what everybody knows cannot be accomplished in twenty lessons in any language. The instruction of the two advanced classes will be throughout in German. No English is spoken during the lesson of two hours. Each lesson is divided into Grammar, Dictation Reading and Conversation, Writing of German Essays, and reciting of Goethe's and Schiller's poems will be practiced during the new term. At the end of each month the Professor will give a lecture in German, whilst he will enjoy the pleasure and the reward of last year's labor, that about fifty pupils will with interest and ease follow his discourses. Private instruction will be strictly attended to. For particulars concerning terms and joining a new class now forming, apply to Mr. JACOB STERN, Main Street, or Prof. CARL BRAUN, 104 Harlow street.
Now is your time, the language is worth while knowing.

LATEST NOTES ABOUT THE FASHIONS.

[From the N. Y. Evening Post.]

Pink and pale brown make a pretty combination.

Slate color, an ugly and unbecoming color to either blonde or brunette, for some reason unknown, has come into fashion once again.

It is not in good taste to wear a slipper or very low-cut shoe upon the street, but when it is done, the slipper should always be worn over black stockings. In this case the height of the shoe will hardly be observed.

Soft feathers in white or pale-tinted colors are worn in the hair with admirable effect, and with full evening dress, diamond stars, arrows, and crescents, or pins in the shape of small flowers and leaves, are used to fasten the plumes in place.

A new color has been added to the already extended list of novel, artistic shades. It is called honeysuckle, and in one light is of a delicate rosy pink, and in another throws out a delicious golden hue. It very much resembles the æsthetic tint known as "dawn" which appeared last year.

Drap de Thibet, a woven fancy cloth in mixed colors—an old, but newly revived material, in handsome mixed colors—is an excellent fabric for fatigue costumes, and is particularly useful for children's school dresses for the late fall, as like tweed, it is wear-defying and proof against rain and cold.

Some of the new gimps have silk chenille tufts interwoven into them with very soft and pretty effect, and another novelty in trimmings is a plush brocaded galloon of silk with bits of silver or gold showing in the raised designs. These last trimmings come in fashionable shades of prune, marine blue, bronze brown, olive, dark green, dark garnet, and black.

Sailor hats will be worn this fall, trimmed with a ribbon as deep as the crown, drawn tightly around it, and then tied with an upright bow at one side. A wreath of poppies or corn flowers, or a mixture of both, is frequently added with good effect. The dyed straws, matched to the toilet, are easily found, as they come in nearly every color in this jaunty shape.

Upon some of the latest French walking dresses the drapery consists wholly of soft flowing folds and puffs, which fall from the belt to the foot of the skirt. These loose sagging puffs are caught up here and there by silk cord ornaments, bows and ends of ribbons, and upon very elegant costumes of silk or satin, with ornaments in the shape of Greek medallions, clasps, or buckles in silver filagree.

Tunics and overdresses of Madras muslin tussore, cream colored cashmere, and Pompadour veilings are all pretty and appropriate dresses for the present delightful season, while the ever useful and always elegant black skirt supplies a suitable foundation for each alike. A few black velvet bows and loops added to these overdresses are desirable as suggesting a connecting link between the upper and lower portions of the costume, and a broad velvet band worn around the throat, dotted with Roman pearl beads, gives a pretty finish to the whole.

Braiding will be plentifully used this season, as a trimming for costumes of cloth, vigogne, cashmere, and the like, fine braids forming arabesques, the edges merely sewn so as to cause them to stand upright like a cord. A narrow braid sewn on flat sometimes follows the design. The braiding covers the chest and diminishes towards the waist. The sleeves have a rounded cuff not too large, also braided. The corsage is fastened either by a row of small passementerie buttons, or by brandebourgs with cords over the centres.

For possessors of costly jewelry the affectation is, excepting on great occasions, not to display it. When, however, the time arrives for its exhibition, it is the custom to lavish jewels, not upon the neck and arms alone, but over various portions of the dress; for, besides the necklace, ear-drops, and bracelets, which used formerly to constitute the sole adornings, the draperies are now held in place by jewelled clasps, rings and crescents. There are tiny dress buttons of diamond, ruby or sapphire, Anne of Austria bells, glittering with half-precious gems, and combs, arrows, Greek bandeaux, and other glittering parures.

A pretty walking costume for a young girl is made of dark blue Italian rep goods, with hollow plaits of the same upon the skirt, and between the interstices, are set bands of Turkish cashmere in colors of gold, blue, olive, and faint dashes of scarlet. A scarf of the rep goods, edged with the multi-colored fabric, divides the skirt from the deep basques of the casaquin bodice, and is simply crossed over the back with alternate loops of each material. The bodice is trimmed with a deep collar and a long tapering revers of Turkish cashmere. The long tight sleeves have revers to match. The sailor hat is of dark blue satin braid, trimmed with a band of dark blue surah and a wreath of bluebells, scarlet poppies, and foliage of green rose leaves.

Handkerchief pouches and bags continue in fashion. They add very much to the finish of a toilet designed for any occasion, be it picnic, party or ball. Very handsome ones are now sold, made of black velvet, embroidered in tiny gold buds and leaves, edged with gold lace, lined inside with gold-colored silk, and depending from the belt clasp with a fine French gold chatelaine. These pouches are too expensive for ordinary purses, but there are innumerable varieties made in every shape and style, and sold at reasonable prices. Stylish modistes now send home their most expensive costumes with a pouch accompanying the dress, made en suite with the toilet. Ingenious ladies, however, who cannot afford to compensate madame for her pretty devices, make their own mouchoir-bags, the latest adorning to these dainty trifles being, when silk or satin is used, a new kind of "mineral" decalcomanie work, which, when skilfully done, can hardly be distinguished from hand-painting.

Elegant skirts for dressy wear are made of black satin de Lyon, with ruffles of the same, alternating with those of black Spanish lace. With this skirt is a tunic of black satin de Lyon in pannier style, bordered with black Spanish lace, ruffles, and above this a Jersey jacket of plain black Lyons velvet, finished at the throat with a collarette of Spanish lace.

A very beautiful dress, prepared in this city for a bridemaid's toilet, has a cream white satin underskirt, made short, and trimmed around the bottom with a box-plaited ruche of the same, faced with pale yellow roses, and finished with a deep fringe, showing a mixture of cream white and pale gold silk chenille. The close-fitting Camargo bodice of cream white satin, opens over a gilet, or vest, of gold-embroidered satin, and the graceful drapings of the tournure, are held in place by buckles of gold filagree, set with Roman pearls. The shoulders of the corsage are partly veiled by a bertha of white imperial point lace, the designs being outlined with threads of gold. The Rubens hat of cream white satin is completely covered with waves of lace and drooping white ostrich feathers, tipped with pale yellow. The hat is edged with small Roman pearl beads, and faced with pale gold merveilleux. The pale yellow gloves of undressed kid cover the elbows, and meet the double frills of imperial point lace which garnish the half-long sleeves of the bodice. A cluster of tea roses and foliage is fastened to the left side of the belt, and upon the day of the wedding a similar cluster of natural roses will be carried in the hand.

Parisian travelling cloaks, following the general tendency in dress, are becoming exceedingly elegant in appearance, and like most French models have a look of simplicity, but when examined closely, or an attempt is made to duplicate them, they are found to be exceedingly intricate and elaborate in their construction. One of these travelling cloaks is in the shape of a long paletot, fitting the figure in the back and loose in front, with odd turn-over sleeves in Chinese style, turned back with wide facings of silk. The material is a soft twilled English fabric, very fine, and with an invisible check pattern chinied with green and red upon a beige ground. The entire garment is lined with deep green silk, and fastened down the front with silk cords and large French gold buttons; fifty-five dollars is the price asked for this wrap. A second cloak is made of fawn colored vigogne, in a simple half-fitting shape, easy to throw over any toilet, without altogether disguising the form, or hiding the graceful tournure of a handsome travelling costume. Down the front on each side of the cloak, is a wide band of golden fawn-colored moire, and over the shoulders is a unique-looking half-cape, slashed each side from the lower edge half way up the length of the cape, and buttoned over with small enamelled buttons. The sleeves are trimmed with moire, and slashed in the same manner as the cape. Inside is revealed a rich lining of deep royal cardinal surah, which gleams forth in fine contrast to the golden color of the wrap itself. The cloak is fastened by three wide satin ribbons of fawn color, faced with cardinal, which tie at the throat, at the belt, and half way down the length of the skirt of the mantle. Sixty-three dollars is asked for this model.

Early importations in autumn dress fabrics show light but beautifully woven and finished stuffs in plain colors, or in silk and wool in heather mixtures, often with lines of silver or gold cropping out here and there with wonderfully artistic and brightening effect. These lighter goods very much resemble the more weighty tweeds and cheviots which through the past year have reached such a height of popularity. Cashmeres, vigognes, and other fine woolen goods are shown in new and exquisite shades of color—dark myrtle and olive greens, deep royal blue, and the new, and beautiful shade of golden brown, being the most popular colors. The one last mentioned is said by more than one "leading" importer to outrival all the rest in fashionable favor abroad. Nun's cloth, in dark, subdued shades for the fall, will constitute a very dressy and appropriate material, especially when the skirts are worn with a Newmarket coat of a velvet of a deeper shade to match. A suit of this kind lately worn upon the promenade was made of dark laurel green nun's cloth, with three kilted ruffles of the same, edged with dark green velvet bands cut bias. The tunic was made with full "Buckingham" panniers, and above this was a beautifully fitting walking jacket of dark-green velvet with a very large Charles II. collar falling over the shoulders, made of ficelle lace, cuffs to match turned back nearly to the elbows, and the long Danish kid gloves reached quite to the elbows underneath the cuffs. A dark-green satin parasol trimmed with ficelle lace, and a large Vandyke hat, adorned with immensely long dark green plumes finished this very elegant costume. Colored velvet skirts trimmed round the foot with a plaited ruche or trimmed up the length of the skirt with three gathered ruffles will be much worn during the fall and winter, and above these, the most fashionable overdress will be the graceful French "Imperial" polonaise, with sash drapery in the back, velvet revers down the front, velvet cuffs, and a wide "mousquetaire" collar of the same lined with satin. Silk matelasse, now returned to favor, will be a fabric greatly in use, for either polonaises, redingotes, or habit basques, over handsome underskirts of rich plain materials, such as satin, velvet, or silk. Velvet skirts when trimmed are seldom made up entirely of velvet, flounces of velvet only being arranged upon fausses jupes of inferior material. Parisian costumes are still made with exceedingly full drapings and puffy panniers, yet there are a few attractive models showing a plain skirt laid from belt to hem in flat perpendicular plaits or kilts, with no trimming beyond a plain scarf draped over the hips and simply tied behind in the form of a sash. Magnificent satin fabrics in superb shades of olive, bronze, myrtle green, russet brown, ruby, sapphire blue, garnet, dahlia, and royal blue, with wide strips of embroidered plush, will be used this and the coming season as dress accessories in the composition of the most recherches and costly dinner and reception toilets, and sartora, the new American rhadema silk, of fine texture and admirable wearing quality, is a very desirable autumn dress fabric, already selling in large quantities for entire costumes, including visits or other outside wrap. This rich looking silk makes up handsomely in combination with plain velvet, plush, or Turc satin.

STATE NEWS.

Cumberland.

J. A. Locke, Esq., agent for the Welch estate, Peak's Island, is having an Artesian well bored for the benefit of the cottage residents upon the property, which if successful will be a great convenience to most of them, as the supply of water has been very scanty the past summer.

About 9 o'clock Saturday night, fire was discovered in the two story wooden building, at Saccarappa, belonging to the Dirigo Underwear Co., Keeler & Bailey, and occupied by them as a box manufactory, also as a storehouse, and in spite of all efforts to save it, it burned to the ground. The building stood some twenty rods from the main mill, at the west end of the village, near the track of the Portland & Rochester R. R. It was valued at about $2,500 and contained stock and machinery worth about $5,000, all of which is a total loss; partially insured—amount not known. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have caught from spontaneous combustion from a lot of waste in the building. A carload of cotton was run down to the storehouse Saturday afternoon but the proprietors decided not to unload it till Monday.

Friday night, the two story wooden house on the Buxton road, a short distance from Stroudwater village, owned by the heirs of Mrs. Mary Folsom, was burned. The house and furniture are a total loss. The barn, about twenty feet from the house, was saved. The cause of the fire is supposed to have been incendiary as there had been no fire in the house for several weeks. The house had also been uninhabited for a short time.

George Cole, of Saccarappa, was fatally injured at the fire, Saturday night, by a portion of the building falling upon him. His back was broken, and the physician was enabled to lay his two fingers in between the ends of the spine. The man cannot possibly live, if indeed, he is alive now.

Miss Charlotte Crane Allen, for many years a well-known resident of Machias, Me., but more recently of Boston, died of paralysis, at Augusta, Me., Aug. 30, 1882. She was a decendant of Major William Allen, of the British army, one of the original settlers of Halifax, N. S., in 1749, and afterwards Crown Land Commissioner of that province. His son, Col. John Allen, a member of the Provincial Parliament, sympathizing with the revolted colonies, came into the United States in 1776, and, stationed at Machias, commanded the Department of Eastern Maine from 1777 to 1784. He was one of the original incorporators of Eastport, in 1798. Her father, Wm. Allen, Esq., of Eastport, married Alice, eldest daughter of Col. John Crane, one of the Boston Tea Party, and later, in 1777, Gen. Henry Knox's successor as Colonel of the Massachusetts Artillery.

Fire a little after midnight, Saturday, destroyed a story and a half house in Rockland, owned and occupied by George Leonard. Loss $1,000; insured for $300; also the adjoining house owned and occupied by Mrs. Sullivan. Loss $1,500; insured for $1,200. Another house owned by Leonard was badly damaged.

The Times says Daniel Hodgkins' store, at Bath, was entered from the rear, the burglar passing through a vacant tenement in the private way, last Monday, while he was at dinner, and from $20 to $25 in money stolen from his money drawers. One was a private drawer, that he didn't think any one knew of.

Moses B. Goodwin died at Franklin, N. H., on Thursday night, aged 68. He was a native of Limington, Me., and a graduate of Bowdoin College in the class of 1845. For many years he was a teacher and a correspondent of newspapers. He had for a time a position in one of the departments at Washington. The deceased was greatly interested in educational matters, and leaves three daughters, highly educated teachers, and a widow, a daughter of the late Kendall O. Peabody, of Franklin.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 13, 1882.

THE GLORIOUS TRIUMPH.

The sweeping and magnificent victory by which Maine has been redeemed from Fusionism, grows with every hour, and has already assumed the full proportions of a complete political restoration.

Additional returns only confirm our previous estimate of a Republican plurality of between five and eight thousand, for Governor and Congressmen, with enormous gains in the Legislature, as follows:

GAIN OF REPUBLICAN REPRESENTATIVES.

Oxford County gains	2
Penobscot County gains	7
Aroostook County gains	2
Androscoggin County gains	2
Waldo County gains	2
Somerset County gains	2
Washington County gains	1
Cumberland County gains	1

We have carried every County except Waldo and Knox, so that the Senate will stand 28 Republicans to 3 Fusionists, and the Republican majority in the House will be great in proportion.

We have carried Penobscot County without a doubt, the closest figuring being between the two candidates for Sheriff, with a prospect that the Republicans have secured even that. "It was a famous victory!"

BEFORE THE RESULT WAS KNOWN.

The day has been a very orderly and quiet one in Bangor. The police made no arrests and the Columbia street temple of justice was empty as a fly trap in January.—Commercial, Sept. 11.

AFTER THE NEWS CAME.

The result is largely due to the lavish use of money, either directly employed in the purchase of voters, or used in the still more, if possible, disgraceful methods of subsidizing the lowest class of rum shops to dispense their vile poison freely in the conversion of voters to the party of temperance and morality.—Commercial, Sept. 12.

FUNNY SAYINGS.

Roble is a dead duck—New Age, Sept. 8.

The Republicans are overwhelmed with fear.—Argus, Sept. 11.

The once strong Republican party of the county of Sagadahoc is at last divided—split in twain.—Argus, Sept. 9.

If you place your ear to the ground you will hear something from Aroostook that will do your heart good next Monday night.—Commercial, Sept. 7.

The success of the Union forces to-day is well assured. The prospect was never brighter. Remember that victory to-day ends the reign of ring rule.—Argus, Sept. 11.

Gen. Cary said: There can be no doubt of the result of this contest, for it is one wherein Gov. Plaisted is so clearly in the right that voters who ordinarily can be counted upon to support the other side, will not go to the polls from sheer shame.

My fellow citizens, the people are in earnest; they mean to have victory next week; all the signs are in our favor; Republicans are coming to our ranks hourly. Our Republican friends admit that we are to be victorious.—Gov. Plaisted in Norombega.

Gov. Plaisted's masterly exposition of the State issues is placing the controversy between the Council and himself in its true light—and convincing everybody who hears him of the indefencible character of the position of the Council.—New Age, Sept. 8.

The WHIG says that the Fusionists are "evidently raising the wind somewhere." Yes, and you will find it the liveliest kind of a political breeze you ever experienced by Monday next. So we should advise you to get your craft in order for a stiff "blow."—Commercial, Sept. 7.

The re-election of Gov. Plaisted is an assured fact already. The victory, however, should be made complete, by a clean sweep of the State. Let Unionists everywhere labor to this end from now to the night of election, and the great work of the regeneration of Maine is accomplished. New Age, Sept. 9.

At the last election, in 1880, the Republicans boasted down to the day of election that they would carry the State by 6,000 majority, and that they had the Fusionists on the run. But they had the mortification of being beaten; and unless we greatly mistake the signs of the times, a worse defeat awaits them now. Let us charge upon them and rout them!—Belfast Age, Sept. 7.

The meeting at Norombega last evening in point of numbers and earnest interest and enthusiasm, has been equalled by no other during the present campaign. It demonstrated that the friends of the Union cause are awake in Bangor and that they will do their share in achieving the glorious victory which is certainly to be won on Monday next.—Commercial, Sept. 9th.

We publish to-night special despatches from more than half of the counties in the State, giving the outlook in those counties to-day and the prospects for Monday. Our correspondents are gentlemen whose opportunities for information are exceeded by none and whose judgment we have often proved in the past. These despatches show them that to-day the Fusion ranks are solid in every part of the State and that the outlook for victory next Monday is more encouraging than it was two years ago. Let the Unionists of Bangor and of Penobscot county, see to it that in the impending struggle they do their whole duty to the cause and to their co-workers throughout the State.—Commercial, Sept. 9.

Governor Plaisted's Portland organ, the Advertiser, will be out of a job now. It mournfully remarks:

From returns received by the morning papers it appears that the Republicans have carried the State, electing their candidates for Governor and Congressmen, nearly all of their county tickets and a majority in both branches of the Legislature, which will choose Senator Frye's successor in the National Senate.

THE GLORIOUS VICTORY.

What the Papers Say.

[From the Portland Press.]

The result of the election yesterday will be a subject of profound satisfaction to all Republicans and to all thoughtful men who care for the good name and the fair fame of our State. For four years we have been in whole or in part under the control of the motley crowd which gathers in a disorderly mob under the Fusion banners, and that four years have shown a pitiful record of wrangling malfeasance in office, countouts, attempted usurpations and general disorganization, disgraceful alike to the evil doers and to the State which put them in public places. Now the respectable elements of society have again assumed the control of affairs, and the public business will be again transacted in the prudent, decent and orderly fashion to which we had become accustomed through all the years of Republican control. It is a matter for which we ought to be profoundly thankful. Not less grateful and happy should we be that we have again secured a solid Republican delegation in Congress, where we can contribute our full share to the safe conduct of the affairs of the Nation. The thanks of good men from all parts of America will to-day come to the Republicans of Maine for the high service they did for the Nation yesterday. It is time for congratulations and handshakings for happy hearts and joyous faces. There is little chance that Maine will ever lapse from her high standard since the sad experience of the last few years, and the sons of Maine can again hold up their heads and look their brethren of other States straight in the face without grief or shame for their birthplace. The sun of this morning rises on a State redeemed and we give warm greetings to all our friends and brethren who have helped to achieve our great deliverance.

[From the Kennebec Journal.]

The Republicans achieved a great victory yesterday. The overthrow of Plaistedism is complete. Roble is elected Governor by several thousand plurality, also every Republican candidate for Congress, while the Republicans have a large majority in both branches of the Legislature, and have elected their county tickets in nearly every county in the State.

Fusionism has fought its last battle in this State. It can never recover from the blow of yesterday. Governor Plaisted has received a rebuke for his high-handed proceedings which will not be soon forgotten. The State Steal which was brought into the canvass by the Garcelon crowd helped to crush the Fusion ticket, and received in some measure the condemnation which it ought to have suffered two years ago. Governor Plaisted made the campaign, so far as he was concerned, upon State issues, and now he finds what the plain people think of them.

It will be seen by the returns that the Independent Republican vote was a very small affair. Men held to their principles and voted the regular ticket as closely as they ever did in any election. They took no stock in the trick to lead them over into the Democratic camp.

To the State Committee great credit is due for the splendid organization which they perfected and the skill with which the campaign was conducted. No mistakes of any importance were made. The prospects of the Republicans improved steadily from the start. The speaking on the Republican side was certainly never excelled in the State, and their meetings will rank among the largest and most earnest ever held in our borders. But to the city and town workers and to the plain people of the State are the Republicans very largely indebted for their victory. Almost every Republican was interested and helped the cause with a will that swelled the vote largely.

We congratulate the State upon the excellent Governor she will have in Frederick Robie; upon the able and stalwart delegation which she will send to the next Congress; and upon the fact that something has been done to set the record of our people right in regard to the State Steal, and to demonstrate that no Governor can trample upon the constitution and laws without feeling the indignation of the people upon him.

[Cor. Boston Journal.]

Fusionism and Plaistedism suffered a crushing defeat to-day. Fusion will never be heard of again in Maine except as a thing of the past. Plaistedism, with all of the demagogism, cant and hypocrisy which the term implies, will figure hereafter as an unsavory reminiscence. In vain has Gov. Plaisted swapped clay pipes in Gorham with ragged loafers; in vain has he ostentatiously attended the service of the Catholic Church; in vain has he played the part of political harlequin in the campaign; he is rebuked by the people to whom he appealed. The people of Maine have declared against all the pretensions of Gov. Plaisted. They declare that "no king, no clown, shall rule this town;" that the Governor shall not be an absolute dictator; that the Executive Council is a part of the Executive branch of the State Government, and that the opinions of the Supreme Court shall have the force of absolute decrees. The first Wednesday of January next, Plaisted and Plaistedism will disappear from Maine politics forever. Hereafter Fusionism will be a term of reproach in Maine. Even straight Greenbackism is as much a myth as the theory of fiat money. But the most mortifying failure was the "independent" fiasco. The movement was conceived in malice and hypocrisy; it was supported by brazen falsehood and was characterized by most malignant assaults upon the Republican party and its candidates. The paper run during the campaign was the most malignant sheet ever issued in Maine. The result of this lying and malicious raid is a miserable handful of votes, perhaps 200, but probably less than that number. Never in the history of the State was there so great a cry over so meagre a result. The indications now are, that Col. Frederick Robie, Republican, is elected with from 7,500 to 9,000 plurality, and a clean majority of not less than 5,000; and that the Republican Congressional ticket is elected by an average plurality about the same as that of Col. Robie.

[Boston Post.]

The despatches below, from the Post's Maine correspondents, and from the Associated Press, tell the story, which is a doleful one for the men who voted for Gen. Plaisted, and for all those in Massachusetts and elsewhere who sympathized with him and his associates on the union ticket. The town returns have been arranged by counties, for the convenience of the reader. An attempt was made to give the gain made in each town, but it soon became so monotonous, as well as disgusting and demoralizing, that the poor editor gave it up. The Republicans have made gains almost everywhere, in some towns so large that there is room for the suspicion that they murdered all the union voters before going to the polls themselves. During the evening the Post editorial rooms were visited by large numbers of union refugees from Maine, who had scented the mischief in the air and fled to Boston to drown their sorrows. Some of them, on learning the extent of the disaster, calmly remarked, "I am not at all surprised; I thought it would be so;" others used language not found in the revised edition or any other edition of the Bible, and made remarks not particularly complimentary to Blaine, Hubbell, and other distinguished men of the "Going-to-the-Lordy" party. Others still refused to take any stock in the Post's figures, and went away with the idea that the Post was in sympathy with the Republicans!

[Lewiston Journal.]

The election on Monday resulted, as was predicted, in a most complete Republican victory. Robie is elected Governor; Reed, Dingley, Boutelle and Milliken, are elected Representatives to Congress; a Legislature overwhelmingly Republican is elected, which will reelect Senator Frye; and three-fourths of the counties are carried by the Republicans. The Republican plurality on Governor will exceed 6,000, and on Congressmen somewhat more.

The defeat of the Fusionists is so overwhelming that it may be regarded as a Waterloo for them. A political combination without principles, and resting solely on a trade to divide the offices, will inevitably fall to pieces under such a defeat. Before the next election in this State in 1884, thousands of voters who did not vote with the successful party on Monday, will be found acting with the Republican party, and the curious combination which has kept Maine in such a turmoil for nearly four years, will only be remembered for its powers for mischief. Gov. Plaisted has played a bold game—a game which involved possibilities of untold evil—and the people have pronounced their verdict of condemnation on his course.

The causes of this popular verdict are plain. Any intelligent person who has travelled through the State could not fail to discover that a wave of condemnation of Fusionism was rising. In every town there were more or less Democrats and Greenbackers who freely avowed their disgust with the fruits of Fusionism and their determination to vote the Republican ticket hereafter. In addition to these there were others who avowed their purpose to stay away from the polls. Probably two thousand Greenbackers supported Solon Chase's straight movement. The independent Republican movement, started to offset Chase's diversion, proved well nigh a failure. Republicans everywhere awoke to the importance of the contest, and stood solidly by the Republican ticket. The Republican vote will prove to be nearly as large as the unprecedented vote of two years ago, while the Fusion vote will fall considerably below.

It is unquestionable that the reappearance of Fusion speakers on the stump in defence of the State steal of 1879-80 had considerable to do in strengthening the disgust against Fusionism. Men who voted for Plaisted two years ago under the stress of the Presidential election took the present opportunity to pronounce their condemnation of so foul a wrong. Plaisted's attempt to punish Judge Libbey for his opinions in the counting-out operations, only increased the feeling against Fusionism and made the verdict against the Fusion cause more emphatic.

We congratulate the Republicans of Maine and of the county, on our splendid victory. It puts an end to the turmoil which has stained the fair fame of Maine, and gives to our State the peace and good name which it desires. It makes Maine once more a sure Republican State. It secures the re-election of our able and distinguished U. S. Senator, Hon. Wm. P. Frye. It places in the House of Representatives a united Republican delegation. It sends a message of encouragement and joy to the Republicans of the country.

The names marked by a star indicate Republican gains.

If that Boston Herald interviewer had "his eyes and ears open" Monday evening he must have heard something entertaining and instructive as the Maine returns came in.

E. Moody Boynton should be brought down here to make a few more speeches and to send some more of those flaming despatches to Boston papers about the prospective great Plaisted victory, that collapsed.

The Vermont Republicans are naturally elated over the unusually large majority they rolled up this year. As the Burlington Free Press remarks, it shows that "they have no idea of surrendering any ground to the bogus Democracy."

The Bourbon majority for Clerk of the Court of Appeals in Kentucky is 40,217. While this is smaller than the usual party majority in that State, it is a significant indorsement of a man for an important office, who, his friends declared, would be certain to have a "bilin' old racket" on the day after election.

The Boston Sunday Herald filled columns with the cheap despatches of cheap Fusionists claiming certain victory for their ticket. The Herald thought Plaisted would be Governor and that two Fusion Congressmen would be chosen. Great was Plaistedism and the Herald was its false prophet.

Mr. Ladd telegraphed the Boston Sunday Herald:

My judgment is that we shall carry the State by from 2000 to 3000 and elect all the Congressional ticket.

He is now engaged in carefully revising his estimates.

In his Friday night speech Gov. Plaisted said: "Robie is out of the fight." Well, he seems to be well out and on the winning side. The Governor is out also, and the returns don't indicate that he will be able to "go for" Frye very seriously this year.

The Commercial says it has "no wish to conceal either our disappointment or surprise at the result of yesterday's election." It would be pretty hard to conceal either. The late Fusion organ first attributes the result to "money," and then it changes its tune and attributes the disaster to the double-headed Fusion business. We thought straddling would lead to trouble.

MONEY VALUE OF LIFE

TO YOUNG MEN—

If you are earning $500 each year and your expectation of life is forty years, there is in prospect $20,000.

If you should die this year, there will be a money loss of the income of your life, $20,000.

The present value of such life discounted at 6 per centum, age 25, is $6,890.

The wisest thing to do is to let FAIRBANKS secure some part of the money value of your life, by insuring under the

THE NEWS BETTER AND BETTER

Robie's Plurality Increasing!

REPUBLICAN GAINS IN ALL SECTIONS!

THE LEGISLATURE OVERWHELMINGLY REPUBLICAN!

Sixty-Six Majority on a Joint Ballot!

Kennebec County.
[Special to Whig and Courier.]

AUGUSTA, Sept. 12. Kennebec gives two thousand three hundred and fifty plurality for the entire ticket, a gain of six hundred and fifty over the vote of 1880. We carry every representative district but one. The Republicans of Maine are to be congratulated upon this grand victory. Robie's plurality will reach six thousand and his majority will probably reach four thousand. Plaisted will "abdicate" and Thing will have time "to feed his pigs."
J. H. MANLEY.

Splendid Gains in Waldo.
[Special Despatch to Whig and Courier.]

BELFAST, Sept. 12. One hundred and sixty Republican gain in Belfast and one thousand gain in Waldo County. Waldo the banner County as to gains.
S. L. MILLIKEN.

Bath's Representative.
[Special to Whig and Courier.]

BATH, Sept. 12. Hon. Wm. Rogers, a stalwart Republican, was elected yesterday as Bath's Representative in the Legislature, over Kelly Democrat, and Swanton Independent. The vote was, Rogers 911; Kelly 463; Swanton 154.

No State Steal in Theirs.
[Special to Whig and Courier.]

PRESQUE ISLE, Sept. 12. T. H. Phair is elected Representative over F. G. Parker by 230 majority.
S.

Aroostook Republican.

FORT FAIRFIELD, Sept. 12. In sixteen towns heard from in Aroostook, Robie has six hundred and ninety-one majority; the county has gone Republican without doubt.

Piscataquis Rolls up some Strong Majorities.

DOVER, Sept. 12. Additional returns from Piscataquis county are: Brownville, Robie 154; Plaisted 28; Chase 4. Medford, Robie 79; Plaisted 17; Chase 5. Greenville, Robie 35; Plaisted 45. Monson, Robie 180; Plaisted 31; Chase 17. Milo, Robie 134; Plaisted 115. Abbot, Robie 121; Plaisted 70; Chase 2. Six small towns remain to be heard from. The Congressional vote is not received, but it will be about the same as the vote for Governor.

Knox County Vote.

ROCKLAND, Sept. 12. Full returns from Knox county, excepting Maticicus plantation, which is about evenly divided, gives the following result: Robie, 2,590; Plaisted, 3,457; Chase, 104; Vinton, 3; Reed, 2,601; Dingley, 2,604; Boutelle, 2,584; Milliken, 2,452; Dane, 3,432; Thing, 3,446; Ladd, 3,449; March, 3,473. The whole Fusion county ticket is elected by majorities of from 500 to 800. The Republicans elect two Representatives from this city and the Fusionists all the rest, gaining one. The vote of the county in 1880 was, Davis, 2,899; Plaisted, 4,324; Republican gain this year, 458.

A Question for the Legislature.

PORTLAND, Sept. 12. In York county there being no law to determine whether Wells or York is entitled to a Representative, each has elected one—York Republican and Wells Fusion.

Kennebec Complete.

AUGUSTA, Sept. 12. Kennebec county complete gives Robie 7,320; Plaisted 5,014; Chase, 57; Vinton, 91; scattering, 27; Robie's plurality 2,306.

Aroostook Solid.

PORTLAND, Sept. 12. Aroostook has gone Republican beyond a doubt.

Cumberland County—The Governor Vote.

PORTLAND, Sept. 12. In Cumberland the entire county ticket has gone Republican, except possibly for Sheriff, which stands 9,052 for True, Republican, against 8,850 for Sawyer, Fusion, with the town of Cumberland to hear from. As the Fusion plurality in Cumberland cannot exceed 50, the Republicans have doubtless elected by a small margin. The estimate on the Governor vote has not changed and as last night's figures included every part of the State, probably no nearer estimate will be obtained until the official vote is nearly in at Augusta.

Republican Majorities Increasing.

AUGUSTA, Sept. 12. The Kennebec Journal will say to-morrow morning: The returns received at the office of the Secretary of State yesterday add but little information to that contained in yesterday morning's columns of the newspapers. So far as there is anything additional it indicates a larger Republican majority than the calculations and predictions of Tuesday morning. The backtowns show larger Republican gains than was anticipated. Solon Chase's vote increases by the latest returns and the Independent vote falls off. Waldo makes a Republican gain of 1,000 votes.

A Claim of 8,000 Plurality.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. Acting Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Rogers, to-day received a telegram from Gen. F. D. Sewall, at Bath, Me., as follows: The Republican victory is complete. The Governor and four Congressmen are elected by 8,000 plurality; the Legislature by a large majority.

An Overwhelming Majority in the Legislature.

PORTLAND, Sept. 12. Hon. J. H. Drummond has made a computation of the Legislature for the Associated Press, slightly differing from the Advertiser's estimate. He gives the Senate the same—28 Republicans and 3 Fusionists, the latter being in Knox and Waldo counties. House: Republicans, 96; Fusionists, 52; doubtful, 3; as follows:

Counties.	Repub.	Fusion.	D'btf'l.
Androscoggin,	7	1	1
Aroostook,	5	2
Cumberland,	14	6
Franklin,	3	2
Hancocock,	8	1
Kennebec,	12	1
Knox,	2	6
Lincoln,	3	3

Piscataquis,	3
Sagadahoc,	4
Somerset,	4	4
Waldo,	2	6
Washington,	6	4
York,	8	6	1

[The above is erroneous as to Penobscot County, in which the Republicans have gained seven Representatives, making the delegation stand 12 Republicans and 6 Fusionists.—ED. WHIG.]

Two Hundred and Ninety-Four Towns.

LEWISTON, Sept. 12. The Lewiston Journal has returns from 294 towns which give Robie 61,495; Plaisted 51,863; Robie's plurality 9,632.

Congratulations.

Senator Frye to-day received congratulations from President Arthur, ex-Secretary Blaine, Senator Hale and others, on the victory in Maine.

Happy Republicans.

LEWISTON, Sept. 13. Republicans are firing guns to-night in honor of victory and serenading successful candidates.

Portland Republicans Celebrating.

PORTLAND, Sept. 12. A salute of 100 guns were fired to-night for the Republican victory and a public meeting was held in City Hall for congratulations. Governor-elect Robie was present. Speeches were made by the Governor-elect, Mayor Libbey and others.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. Lewiston has been placed upon the list of free delivery post offices, to begin November first next.

NEW HAMPSHIRE REPUBLICANS.

The State Convention.

CONCORD, Sept. 12. The Republican State Convention was called to order in White's Opera House, shortly after eleven o'clock by Hon. Henry H. House, Chairman of the Republican State Committee. The organization selected by the meeting, last night, was read by the Chairman and adopted, as follows:

President, Chester B. Jordan, of Lancaster, a Vice President from each County. Secretaries, Edward O. Lord, of Somersworth, Edwin P. Thompson, of Belmont, Sanford B. Hubbard, of Shelburne, Arthur E. Clark, of Manchester, and Wm. H. Prentiss, of Keene. The Committees on Credentials and Resolutions were appointed, J. Horace Kent, of Portsmouth, being chairman of the latter. Hon. Chester B. Jordan was escorted to the stage and addressed the Convention. At the conclusion of his speech the Convention arose and gave three cheers for the Republican party in the Pine Tree State.

Mr. Abbot, from the Committee on Credentials, reported that 638 credentials had been presented, but only 636 tickets were issued. The report was accepted and adopted.

Andrew Young, of Dover, moved that the Convention proceed to ballot for a Governor, which motion was passed. The balloting then began. The ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number cast, 634; necessary for a choice, 318; Moody Currier, 291; Samuel W. Hale, 297; scattering, 46. No choice declared and the Convention proceeded to a second ballot with the following result:

Whole number cast, 637; necessary for a choice, 319; Moody Currier, 291; Samuel W. Hale, 305; scattering, 41. No choice.

Mr. Hale was nominated on the fourth ballot.

A TERRIBLE CYCLONE.

Loss of Life and Property.

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 12. Considerable damage was caused in the middle inland States by storms this morning. The cotton crop was much damaged at Quincy. Many out houses, fences, trees, etc., were prostrated, and two persons killed. At Darbyville two houses were blown down, and one man killed.

Huge trees were twisted and broken and the ground left as if prepared for cultivation. Many cattle and hogs were killed. The cyclone was the severest since 1872.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Democratic State Convention.

CONCORD, Sept 12. The indications point to an unusually large attendance at the Democratic State Convention here to-morrow. At a meeting of the State Committee and delegates to-night, Hon. Stillson Hutchins, of Laconia, was selected as Chairman of the Convention, and a full list of committees prepared. The name most prominently mentioned in connection with the gubernatorial nomination to-night seems to be M. V. B. Edgerly, of Manchester, though the sentiment is divided between that gentleman and Warren Daniels of Franklin, Geo. B. Chandler, of Manchester, and Horatio Colony, of Keene.

MASSACHUSETTS.

The Governorship.

BOSTON, Sept. 12. A fair estimate of the result of the caucuses so far held gives Bishop 278; Crapo 270 and "Unknown" 126.

THE EGYPTIAN QUESTION.

KASSASSIN, Sept. 13. The British are now marching on Tel el Kiber. An attack will probably begin before daylight.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. Richard Golden and wife are in the city.

The season of agricultural fairs has arrived.

The St. John's parochial school has begun its fall term.

The Gigantean Minstrels stopped at the American House.

The Penobscot County Fair will be held next week at Carmel.

The city schools resumed the fall term yesterday, with a very satisfactory attendance.

The Lowell tannery has started up after being shut down a month for extensive repairs.

The refreshing rain of Monday night has had a very beneficial effect on vegetation and crops.

The Sunday School at St. Mary's Catholic church has resumed its sessions after a summer vacation.

Jeremiah Fenno, Esq., is in the city, having come from Boston to deposit his ballot for the Republican cause.

Mr. Richard H. Wiswell, son of Calvin and Hannah Burr Wiswell, of Holden, died in San Francisco, Cal., on Aug. 31st.

The revenue cutter, building in Brewer for the Danish Government, is nearly completed and will be launched before long.

It is understood that Judge James A. Milliken, of Cherryfield, is slowly but steadily gaining from his recent indisposition.

Regular business meeting of the Crusade this afternoon at half past three. Prayer meeting at four, held in the reading rooms, Franklin street.

Mr. Asa Lancaster, a son of Geo R. Lancaster, Esq., left yesterday for Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he is to attend the River View Academy.

Rev. E. W. Preble has returned from a trip to the West and a few evenings since gave an interesting talk in Bath on what he saw during the trip.

The Maine Central stockholders hold a session at Portland to-day and act upon the proposed lease of the European & North American Railway.

A section man on the E. & N. A. Railway by the name of Mahony fell out of his bed at his home in this city the other night and fractured his shoulder blade.

Tenders for construction on the Great American & European Short Line Railway were opened at Oxford on the 30th ult., but as the prices were considered too high new ones have been asked for.

The Maine Conference of Unitarian and other Christian churches will hold its annual meeting at Augusta, October 10th, 11th and 12th. Rev. Brook Herford, will preach the opening sermon, on Tuesday evening, October 10th.

Among those who came to Bangor from Washington, D. C., to help swell by their votes the grand majority for Robie and the Republican ticket were James A. Vose, Frederic W. Flowers, Wm. H. Mills, Henry Wheeler and Henry Hall.

The Supreme Judicial Court was to have re-commenced yesterday, but Judge Peters extended the time of adjournment until to-day, when Mrs. Mary Glynn, the East Hampden infanticide, will be sentenced. She is now in the county jail.

THE F. C. PENDLETON. The schooner F. C. Pendleton, now about completed at Crosby's yard, has been measured by Inspector Sellers and found to be of the following dimensions: Register length 145-7-10 feet; register width 32 2-10 feet; register depth 12 3-10 feet; tonnage 388 25-100. She will be launched at high water about 10 o'clock this forenoon.

The Penobscot yearly meeting of Free Baptists will be held at Houlton, the 26—28 inst. The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. E. G. Eastman, of Rockland, Tuesday evening. Revs. C. F. Penney, of Augusta, G. W. McDonald, of Woodstock, N. B., and others will also preach. The fare from Bangor to Houlton and return will be $5.75, good for the week.

MARANOCOOK TO-DAY. The closing event of the season at Maranocook will occur to-day, when the much talked of regatta will come off. The great single scull Kennedy—Riley match for $2,000, will be held, and there will be numerous other contests which promise to be exciting. The attendance at the Lake will doubtless be very great. Glover's Band will furnish music.

Mayor Vickery and a half dozen from Augusta and about a dozen from Lewiston, including the champion, Charles F. Nason, have arrived in Bangor to attend the sportsmen's tournament, and other arrivals are expected this morning. A meeting was held at the American House last evening to arrange preliminaries. The regular meeting of the Association will be held Thursday evening.

BOSTON AND BANGOR STEAMERS. The recent rough weather at sea has changed somewhat the running of the steamers between this city and Boston. The steamer Penobscot did not arrive in Boston till nine o'clock last evening, but has already started on return and will probably arrive here to-morrow about eight hours late. The steamer Cambridge left Boston at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and will arrive here about noon to-day, and leave during the afternoon.

A PLEASANT TESTIMONIAL. Col. Andrew Smith recently tendered his resignation as Manager of the Penobscot Exchange and the same has now gone into effect. On Monday evening, as a testimonial of the high esteem in which he is held by all connected with the house, the employes at the hotel presented him with a handsome easy chair and a beautiful lamp. The genial face of Col. Smith has been seen at the Penobscot Exchange for nearly a score of years and he will be much missed.

ABOLISHED. Second class passengers on the All Rail Line between St. John and Boston will not be obliged, those of them who do not use tobacco, to submit to the performance of those who do. Up to the present time, passengers, many of them ladies, who are entitled to the privileges of a second class ticket, have had themselves encompassed by a pillar of fire by night and a cloud by day. This nuisance is now to be abolished, regularly ordained smoking cars having been attached to the train in which all smokers will be incarcerated.

OBITUARY. Mr. James J. Colburo, of Orono, died there Monday last, aged 65 years 5 months, 24 days. He was born in Orono in 1817, and has always resided there, except a few years spent in Missouri, where he was engaged in railroad business, and was the eldest son of him who was familiarly known in Orono, and to many of the older families in this city, as "Uncle William Colburn." From his father he inherited a large store of business capacity, and like him was of untiring industry, and greatly respected by all who made his acquaintance. He was twice married, and leaves a widow and six children. The funeral will take place this Wednesday afternoon, at 2 P. M., at the residence of the family. Relatives and friends invited.

OFF FOR AROOSTOOK. The E. & N. A. R'y excursion to Aroostook will occur to-morrow. There is every indication of a very large number embracing this opportunity to visit the garden of Maine. There will be many come over the Maine Central and participate in the trip. The fare from this vicinity is $4.00 for the round trip to Houlton, $5.00 to Fort Fairfield, $5.25 to Caribou, and $5.50 to Presque Isle. A Farmers' Institute will be held under the auspices of the Maine Board of Agriculture, on Friday at Maysville, by invitation of the Maysville Grange, an organization embracing some of the best farmers in Aroostook county. The general subject for the occasion is "Stock Husbandry," a topic of vital importance to every farming community in Maine, and will be treated under the several branches of raising dairy cows, and butter dairying, by A. W. Cheever, of the New England Farmer; "Stock Feeding and the utilization of Coarse Fodders," by the Secretary, and a discussion of the general subject by all present. The occasion will draw out a large attendance of the wide-awake Aroostook farmers.

THE NEW QUINCY COUNCIL. The following facts concerning the Council called for Rev. Fredk. A. Thayer's installation are of interest. There are fifty four churches and twelve individuals invited from nine States. Of the twenty churches in these nine States having a membership of over four hundred and now with pastors, fifteen are invited. Both of the interior Congregational Seminaries are represented, Oberlin by the President, Chicago by two Professors. The college churches of five Congregational Colleges are invited, and Professors from two others. Eight of the sixteen Moderators of the Illinois State Association, now living in the State, are invited. The twenty churches invited from Illinois, represent one-fourth of the membership of all the Congregational churches in the State—two hundred and forty-six in number. Among the churches invited are the four largest in Iowa; four largest in Wisconsin; three largest in Michigan; five largest (next to Dr. Goodell's) in Missouri; two largest in Minnesota; two largest in Indiana; the largest one in Ohio. Rev. Mr. Thayer was at Bangor in 1878-9. The Council is called for the 19th inst.

AMUSEMENTS.

Gigantean Minstrels.

A crowded auditorium greeted Leavitt's Gigantean Minstrels at the Opera House last evening. The company embraces about forty people, and a programme of much variety and merit was presented. Some of the features were especially excellent, and the whole entertainment was characterized by enthusiastic applause. A novel burlesque entitled "Patience, or Bunthorne's Bride," brought the interesting performance to a close.

Howorth's Hibernica.

Norombega Hall will be crowded this evening on the occasion of the appearance of Howorth's Hibernica. The Manchester, N. H., Mirror of Sept. 14, 1881, says:

Howorth's Double Show was presented in the Opera House last evening to a greatly pleased audience that was so large in number that almost every available sitting was taken. Howorth's Hibernica has visited this city before, consequently the amusement-going people of Manchester are familiar with its characteristics, but the programme on past visits has never been so good as at the present time. In addition to the interesting comedy features of the entertainment, which elicited repeated encores, an exceedingly fine panorama of scenes in Ireland was presented, with a few words of explanation about each picture. The programme concluded with four living Allegorical Tableaux representing the past, present and future of Ireland.

The Tourists.

The Tourists in a Pullman Car, with new faces, new music, and a new car will play at the Opera House next Saturday evening, and also give a matinee in the afternoon. The sale of seats will open to-morrow morning. Of this company the Atlanta Post says:

After becoming celebrated in almost every city in the Union in their comparatively imperfect condition, this famous combination visits Atlanta and takes us by storm with a completed programme and reconstructed company. Last night's performance was as much an improvement over previous season's efforts by this organization as the latter were on any of its imitations. The writer has seen the company in other cities during several previous seasons, and congratulates the management on the great improvements so successfully inaugurated. All that is worth hearing or seeing in a first class variety entertainment is represented, with the addition of a plot that attaches an individual interest to each of the artists. The specialty features are far above the average, and the musical portion of the programme of a high order. In the comedy department Mr. W. A. Mestayer, of course, takes the lead. The scenic efforts are of a high order, the Pullman Car interior being an acceptable variety and well carried out.

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.

President Arthur Passes Through the City on His Return from Bar Harbor—An Informal Reception at the Bangor House, at which Hundreds Shake Hands with the President.

Owing to the continued rough weather President Arthur changed his plans and decided to return from Bar Harbor to New York by land rather than water. At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the President, accompanied by Private Secretary Phillips, left Bar Harbor in a private conveyance, and at 6 45 in the evening arrived in this city, at once driving to the Bangor House. The announcement of the expected visit to our city of so distinguished an individual as the Chief Magistrate of the Nation attracted large numbers to the vicinity of the hotel.

Upon arrival at the Bangor House the President was received by a number of prominent citizens, including Chief Justice Appleton, Judge Peters, ex-Governor Davis, Hon. Lewis Barker, C. A. Boutelle and Collector Smith. The President expressed his gratification at the magnificent victory just achieved by the Republicans of Maine and congratulated Mr. Boutelle upon his election. A large number of citizens had gathered in the corridors and the President kindly consented to devote a few moments of his brief time to an informal reception in the ladies parlor, where several hundred ladies and gentlemen shook hands with him.

A private supper was then served the President and his Secretary, at which, by special invitation of the President, Mr. McFarland, the individual who drove the coach from Bar Harbor, participated. At 8 o'clock the President was taken in a carriage to the Maine Central depot. The hotel office and sidewalks were crowded with a great number of people who greeted the President with enthusiastic cheers. He left on the night Pullman train for Boston en route to New York.

PILES! PILES! PILES!
A SURE CURE FOUND AT LAST! NO ONE NEED SUFFER!

A sure Cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William, (an Indian remedy) called Dr. William's Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electuaries do more harm than good. William's Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed,) acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for piles, itching of the private parts, and for nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry of Cleveland, says about Dr. William's Indian Ointment: I have used scores of Pile Cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. William's Indian Ointment.

A COUPLE OF BOSTON LADIES Discuss WHEAT BITTERS on a Public Thoroughfare.

[From the Boston Globe.]

A reporter happened to hear the following conversation a day or two since, between two ladies who were walking on Tremont st:

"Sue, why do people patent almost everything now-a-days?"

"To protect themselves in its use, and to realize the profits incident to manufacture, I presume. To what are you referring, Amelia, particularly?"

"Well, I was thinking of Wheat Bitters. Ma and I have used it for years for dyspepsia and malaria, whilst our cook has been cured of neuralgia and peculiar weakness by its use."

"Yes, I know they are good, Amelia. I know they have cured Mr. W. A. Whitney, of New York, 33 W. 37th St., of dyspepsia and nervous prostration, and lots of others, too. But what is it you are trying to find out?"

"I want to know what patent there is in its preparation, Sue."

"Well, analysis shows that in preparing wheat for food, the larger part of its most valuable properties is lost. In Wheat Bitters these phosphates are extracted directly from the wheat, and preserved in solution with the most approved vegetable bitters."

"What do you mean, Sue, by phosphates?"

"There can be no thought without phosphates; there can be no vigor of life without phosphates; and Wheat Bitters contains these phosphates in the most beneficial and available form."

"Then the phosphates are the active principles in these bitters, are they?"

"To a certain extent, yes. Chemically compounded they are efficient helps to the rest of the elements in the bitters, and the whole form a matchless medical preparation."

"I can see now, how it is that the Rev. S. Blaisdell, of Randolph, Vt., feels justified in saying, 'under God, we are indebted to Wheat Bitters for the robust health we now enjoy.'"

"Yes, my dear Amelia, all persons who suffer with Dyspepsia, Malaria, Jaundice, Biliousness, Languor, Constipation, Intermittent Fever, Fever and Ague, Paralysis, Delirium Tremens, Neuralgia, Female Complaints, will find in Wheat Bitters a sure and infallible remedy."

"And the proprietors patent the remedy in order that they may protect the public from impostors?" Is that it?"

"Precisely. A good, A 1, actual remedy for those complaints has seldom been found. The proprietors of Wheat Bitters have just such a preparation, and they don't propose to permit other persons to impose upon the public in their name."

"Isn't the medicine spreading in popularity, Sue?"

"Indeed it is, Amelia. The endorsements which it receives almost daily is something truly wonderful. They pour in by the basketful, the letters, and testimonials. Our druggist says he sells lots of it, although all the other drug stores in town keep it on hand." $1 per bottle. W. B Co., M'f'rs, N. Y. eod eow d&w 4w aug22

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME.

Wilbor's Cod Liver Oil and Lime.—Persons who have been taking Cod Liver Oil will be pleased to learn that Dr. Wilbor has succeeded, from directions of several professional gentlemen, in combining the pure Oil and Lime in such a manner that it is pleasant to the taste, and its effects in Lung complaints are truly wonderful. Very many persons whose cases were pronounced hopeless, and who had taken the clear Oil for a long time without marked effect, have been entirely cured by using this preparation. RIVERS COVERED WITH OIL.

The Standing Company's Pipe Leaking.

THE PASSAIC AND SADDLE RIVERS OVERFLOWED.

[N. Y. Tribune.]

People living on the banks of the Passaic River, near the point where the Saddle River empties into it, noticed two or three days ago large quantities of oil floating on top of the water. Where the oil came from was a mystery for some time, but on investigation it was ascertained that it was flowing out of Saddle River. At the junction of the two rivers, and for some distance above and below it, the oil was fully four inches deep on the water. Saddle River is about two miles above Belleville, where the Jersey City Water Works are, and about twelve miles from Jersey City. Detective Coulter, who is employed by the Water Board of Jersey City and Newark, to discover and prevent pollution of the Passaic, from which both cities obtain their water supply, proceeded up Saddle River some distance and found that the oil was flowing into it at the point where the Standard Oil Company's pipe crosses it. Pursuing his investigations, the detective discovered that the oil was escaping from a break in the pipe about a mile and a quarter from the river. Thence it followed the course of the pipe and emptied into the river. The break must have occurred several days ago, as the ground for some distance on both sides of the pipe is saturated with oil, and the walls along the line have oil floating on top of the water. Mr. Courter informed the proper authorities in Jersey City and Newark, and the representatives of the Oil Company were visited, but they were surprised to learn that any break had occurred, and refused to believe it. Upon receiving official notice that the company would be held strictly responsible by both cities for all damage resulting from the break, the leak was stopped. Between 1,000 and 1,500 barrels of oil had escaped, but several hundred barrels were recovered by scooping it from the surface of the water.

W. W. G. Sikes, Chief Engineer of the Jersey City Water Works, was found by a Tribune reporter last night at his house in Summit-ave., near Pavonia-ave. Being ill, he had retired for the night, but he gave all the information that he had about the trouble. He said: "Two days ago our detective, Mr. Courter, noticed a quantity of oil floating on Saddle Creek. He at once informed me and we made an investigation. On account of the tide, we could not determine at first whether the oil came from up or down the river, and we were puzzled until we discovered that it was floating into the water along side the Standard Oil Company's pipe. Then we found a break in the pipe about a mile or a mile and a quarter inland. Mr. Courter informed some of the company's officers of the facts, when they expressed surprise and said that it was impossible that any break could occur, and if any had occurred they were not aware of it. By direction of myself and the Newark authorities, Mr. Courter informed the company that it would be held responsible for all damages, and yesterday the leak was stopped. We learned from other sources that from 1,000 to 1,500 barrels of oil had escaped. The depth of the oil in Saddle and Passaic Rivers varies from one to four inches. The oil did not affect our water until to-day, when some of it had floated down the river as far as our works at Belleville. Then the water was slightly flavored, but to so small an extent that it could scarcely be noticed. We draw our water from a depth of four feet, below the surface, which affords us protection, and in addition to that I have begun the construction of a boom around the intake, so that the water can be only slightly affected. At the Newark Works, above ours, the water is drawn partly from the surface and partly from beneath, but the surface supply has been cut off and further protection is afforded by partly closing the gates. There are only two ways in which the oil can be got rid of. One is by setting fire to it, but as it is spread over the river for a considerable distance, and there are many houses built near the banks, that plan would be too dangerous. A heavy storm lasting for a day or two would give the current such a velocity that the oil would be carried out into the bay. Until such a storm comes, such of the oil as is not scooped up will remain on the water and float up and down with the tide as it does now. It may lie in front of the Water Works for weeks, and of course will impart a slight flavor to the water. None of it has been pumped up yet, so that there is none in the reservoir, as I discovered by a thorough examination. I intend to see Mr. Abbett, our Corporation Counsel, and see if the Standard Oil Company can be held responsible for the damages."

There was no taste or flavor of the oil detected in the drinking water at Newark yesterday.

AGRICULTURAL ITEMS.

So soon as the young clover begins to show heads, it may be lightly pastured without much injury. Blossoming is an exhaustive process and stock prefer blossoms.

The current agricultural fairs are worthy the cooperation and attendance of our farmers. Their faults and shortcomings may be obviated best by a hearty determination on the part of the progressive agricultural classes to raise the standard of excellence.

The harvesting in the West is progressing under most favorable circumstances. The yield of wheat is variously estimated at from 500,000,000 to 600,000,000 bushels, and that of corn from 1,500,000,000 to 2,000,000,000 bushels. We shall have an immense surplus for export, while cheap bread is assured in this country for the next year to come.

It is a singular anomaly that while the farmers of the great grain producing States are complaining of an unusual scarcity of help, being unable in many sections to get in the crops for lack of hands, yet last Monday, some 20,000 laboring people were parading the streets of New York, presumably having nothing else to do, discontented and unhappy. It is singular that thousands of working men will consent to eke out a miserable existence amid the close competitions of crowded cities, when remunerative employment, healthful living and moderate prosperity awaits the industrious laborer in the farming sections of this broad republic.

THE OUTLOOK FOR POTATOES.

The potato market is at present in a very peculiar position, no person seeming willing to predict from any actual knowledge of the facts just what is to happen. There is no question but that the crop in New England will be short and that the supply from New York will be less than the average of good years. In the Southern States, New Jersey, Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina and even farther south, large areas of sweet potatoes were planted, and the crop is just coming to market. Sweet potatoes can now be bought in Boston at about the same price demanded for the common tuber, and there is an increasing demand for them; are arriving in very good condition, and under their old prestige of name and quality generally sell at a good price.

Last season potatoes were very scarce and sold at fabulous prices. The reason of those high prices is readily found in the fact that in the West, where the great consumption is, the crop was a failure, and that not only were many car loads shipped thence, but every steamer to New Orleans and other Southern ports took thousands of barrels. This unusual demand from the West and South, coupled with the small yield in the East, sent prices way up. This year the facts are reversed, and in the West the harvest is a large one. In Kansas City, for instance, twenty-five cents per bushel is all that the farmer can obtain, and at nearer points prices are about the same. But the West does not come so much into competition with New England and New York as does the Canadian Provinces. Letters to commission merchants here from Prince Edward's Island and Cape Breton speak of the universal excellence of the crop and of the large surplus which there will be for shipment. Their quality, too, is dwelt upon. In New Brunswick and the northeastern part of Maine the reports are alike favorable, and at Houlton contracts are being made at $1.25 per barrel.

What the actual yield will be in New England of course cannot be foretold with accuracy. Digging will begin as soon as the corn and grain harvest is over, and the result may be better than is now expected. One fact is certain, that there is a great surplus in the West and that the supply during the coming year will equal the demand. There has probably been no year when the demand at this season has been so light as now. People are eating peaches, melons and the various fruits and vegetables to an extent never known before and this has had a visible effect on the demand for potatoes.

In this market native potatoes are now worth about $2.75 per barrel, and sweet potatoes are quoted at from $3.00 to $3.25. There is not much choice of variety, consumers not caring so much for name as for a fine looking article, the dealers, however seem to think that the most profitable and popular variety is still the Early Rose.—American Cultivator.

LETTER CARRIERS

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 7½ to 8½ P. M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $32 20 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars. Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE

FIRST CLASS

All Letters must be Prepaid—Letters for the Mails in the United States, three cents the half ounce or single rate. City letters, two cents half ounce or single rate.

SECOND CLASS.

Newspapers

All regular newspapers must be prepaid at the office of publication, at the rate of two cents per pound for each issue. The same law applies to dealers.
